THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

READINGS FOR SUNDAY

VOL. 33 NO. 47

NOVEMBER 19, 2017

First Reading: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-29, 30-31

An encomium for a good and worthy wife, this passage from Proverbs extols all the virtues which a worthy wife possesses – fidelity, industriousness, skill, charity to the poor, and fear of the Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Once again, Paul reassures the Thessalonians, who are anxious about the coming of Christ, that they need not fear being unprepared because they are “children of light.”

Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus narrates the parable of the talents – in the story, the silver pieces given to the three men. Two of the men invest their coins and double their worth, but the third buries his coins in the ground and earns no return. The message of Jesus is that we must use to the fullest the talents we have received.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY
OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE
 Ez 34:11-12, 15-17; 1 Cor. 15:20-26, 28; Mt 25:14-30

55+ CLUB

The St. Patrick's 55+ Club meets on Wednesdays from 1:30-4:30pm in the School Cafeteria

WAIT LIST

We are very pleased that the 55+ Club has grown rapidly. Unfortunately, due to space consideration, it has become necessary to form a wait list for membership.

If you would like to join, we ask you to telephone us in order to place your name on the list. Needless to say, priority will be given to St. Patrick's parishioners.

For information, contact Ed or Joan Brett, 718-987-8958.

FEAST OF THE WEEK

St. Cecilia (3rd Century) November 22nd

Although Cecilia is one of the most famous of the Roman martyrs, the familiar stories about her are apparently not founded on authentic material. There is no trace of honor being paid her in early times. A fragmentary inscription of the late fourth century refers to a church named after her, and her feast was celebrated at least in 545.

According to legend, Cecilia was a young Christian of high rank betrothed to a Roman named Valerian. Through her influence Valerian was converted, and was martyred along with his brother. The legend about Cecilia's death says that after being struck three times on the neck with a sword, she lived for three days, and asked the pope to convert her home into a church.

Since the time of the Renaissance she has usually been portrayed with a viola or a small organ.

Comment: Like any good Christian, Cecilia sang in her heart, and sometimes with her voice. She has become a symbol of the Church's conviction that good music is an integral part of the liturgy, of greater value to the Church than any other art.

In the present confused state of Church music, it may be useful to recall some words of Vatican II (see below).

Quote: "Liturgical action is given a more noble form when sacred rites are solemnized in song, with the assistance of sacred ministers and the active participation of the people.... Choirs must be diligently promoted, but bishops and other pastors must ensure that, whenever the sacred action is to be celebrated with song, the whole body of the faithful may be able to contribute that active participation which is rightfully theirs.... Gregorian chant, other things being equal, should be given pride of place in liturgical services. But other kinds of sacred music, especially polyphony, are by no means excluded.... Religious singing by the people is to be skillfully fostered, so that in devotions and sacred exercises, as also during liturgical services, the voices of the faithful may ring out" (Vatican II, Constitution on the Liturgy, 112-118).

INTERVENTION
